

Joyful in Hope – 80 – June 20, 2020
(thoughts and ideas to encourage and challenge)

“Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer.”
Romans 12:12

It's a sultry Saturday out there. I suspect you are sitting somewhere shady. Tomorrow morning, we shouldn't have to worry about the sun beating down on us as we come together for worship. The latest forecast calls for lots of clouds in the morning, and then thunderstorms rolling in around noon.

How's that for a heavenly forecast? Cloud cover while we worship, and no rain until we've gone home. It's going to be such a blessing to meet together. Just a reminder – worship begins at 10:30 AM, on the front lawn at 529 Grove Street – under the trees.

Park in the big lot across the street because the East Doors will be locked.

The elders met via Zoom this afternoon, and reported that, based on phone conversations, it sounds like we will have a pretty good turn out tomorrow. Just another gentle reminder to respect everyone, and, in Christian love, practice safe distancing and wear your masks.

And just in case you missed it yesterday, attached is tomorrow's Order of Worship. If you want to have a copy during worship, you can download it and print it off, or just use your phone.

See you tomorrow. (It sounds so good to be able to say that!)
